Cathedral commits to expansion and renovation of 56th Street campus through new strategic plan

INDIANAPOLIS—February 10, 2016—Matt Cohoat, chair of the Cathedral board of directors, announces that at the February 8 meeting the board agreed to a plan for the school to remain at the 56th Street campus and begin implementation of a new strategic plan. The decision was agreed upon after extensive site studies during the past 18 months and initiates a new era of growth and expansion for Cathedral.

The strategic plan will incorporate enhancements of academics, athletics, and facilities and will bring all academics and athletics (with the exception of an athletic stadium) together at the current location. “This is an exciting time for Cathedral,” Cohoat says, “and represents new opportunities for our students to continue to experience the best possible education.”
